

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE THIRD CIRCUIT

March 15, 2017

ECO-020-E

No. 17-1578

International Refugee Assistance Project,
as Next Friend of John Doe, Appellant

v.

Secretary of U.S. Dept. of Homeland Security, et al

Present: RESTREPO, Circuit Judge

1. Emergency Motion for Injunction Pending Appeal

---

Appellant's emergency motion is also construed as a motion for stay of removal. So construed, the motion is GRANTED on a temporary basis. John Doe's removal is stayed pending further order of this Court. To the extent Appellant seeks additional forms of relief, the motion will be referred to a motions panel. The appeal will proceed on an expedited basis. The Clerk is directed to contact all counsel and issue an expedited briefing schedule.

By the Court,

s/ L. Felipe Restrepo
Circuit Judge

Dated: March 15, 2017
JK/cc: All Counsel of Record

A True Copy

Marcia M. Waldron

Marcia M. Waldron, Clerk